Gisue Mehdi concentrates her practice in the areas of health and welfare plans and qualified retirement plans.

She focuses her practice primarily on helping employers comply with the various Federal and state laws applicable to health and welfare plans, such as the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA), ERISA, the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), the Public Health Service Act, HIPAA, COBRA, FMLA and Medicare. As part of her practice, she assists clients with drafting plan and trust documents, amendments, and SPDs; analyzing employee-benefit issues relating to all aspects of plan design and funding; analyzing plan administrative, fiduciary and tax issues, including benefit claims and appeals, and income and payroll tax reporting, prohibited transactions, and the complex application of non-discrimination rules; and reviewing service provider agreements.

During law school, Gisue served as a judicial extern to the Honorable John T. Noonan, Jr. of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.
