Sarah Kanter counsels employers and multiemployer trusts in all aspects of their health and welfare plans.

Her experience includes assisting clients in compliance with the various Federal and state laws applicable to health and welfare plans, such as the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA), ERISA, the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), the Public Health Service Act, HIPAA, COBRA, FMLA and Medicare.

Sarah assists clients with drafting plan and trust documents, amendments, and SPDs; analyzing employee-benefit issues relating to all aspects of plan design and funding; analyzing plan administrative, fiduciary and tax issues, including benefit claims and appeals, and income and payroll tax reporting, prohibited transactions, and the complex application of non-discrimination rules; and reviewing service provider agreements.

Sarah has been selected as a Northern California "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers Magazine for both 2017 and 2018. She was also a contributing author regarding coverage requirements for group health plans under the ACA in the BNA Employee Benefits Law, Fourth Edition.
