Briana Desch concentrates her practice in the area of employee benefits, with a focus on ERISA litigation. She represents plan sponsors, trustees, and other fiduciaries in a range of employee benefits matters. In addition to her litigation experience, Briana helps plan sponsors comply with the various Federal and state laws applicable to health and welfare plans.

During law school, Briana served as an Employee Benefits Security Administration Investigative Intern at the U.S. Department of Labor where she analyzed documents, financial records and welfare plans related to ERISA, the ACA, HIPAA, and COBRA and drafted subpoenas, document requests, internal memorandums, and compliance letters.
